The Four Lads - Put a Light in the Window (1957) - YouTube

The beacon of a candle in a window sends a spiritual message; the welcoming flicker sends a secular one. There are as many reasons to put a candle in the front window of your house as there are front windows, but there is one common precaution everyone should observe: burn the light safely -- far from flammable materials, curious children and pets, and never leave it unmonitored.

The easiest and cheapest light you can provide is the natural kind, which is achieved in most cases by simply putting the plant near a suitable window. If you don't have much window space (potentially because you've amassed a significant number of green leaved friends), or have no choice but to pick a darker spot you can substitute natural light with artificial instead.
