February Dragon

February Dragon is an utterly devastating and heartbreaking exploration of the ferocity and terror of the summer bushfires that so often ravage rural Australia. These infernos are an ever present reality for so many people in Australia, myself included, and this book always hits close to home.

February Dragon by Colin Thiele - Goodreads

February Dragon is the story of three Aussie kids who live on a farm in Australia in the mid 1900's. Columbine, Resin and Turps catch an old bus to their small, two teacher school, hunt for yabbies and spend a lot of time with their pets, including a possum called Pinch.
